One of the mute teachers made display of his fine collection of prehistoric arrow-heads, axes, etc., expressing his delight in seeing Mr. Pelham, who is somewhat of a pre-historic flint himself, dryly informed the teacher that he had made quite a number of rare arrow-heads for collectors, and in an unguarded moment the Danville man requested, "Make some for me." And this morning Mr. Pelham sent by express a fine lot of "heads" as ever were wrought in one piece and no flakes not being so easily obtainable. It will be a fine one to take to the Danville open that package.

LAST NIGHT'S FIRE.

A Worthy Colored Man Meets With Loss of House and Goods.

Abont o'clock this morning fire broke out in a double frame owned by Thomas H. Stevens, situated in "Palley addition," just South of Forest avenue.

Mr. Stevens occupied one end of the house, the other being tenanted by the family of Elizabeth Pritchard.

The fire originated in the part occupied by Mr. Stevens, but how no one knows.

Being in the county and beyond reach of the water service, the building was at the mercy of the flames, and the fire only ceased when nothing more was left to burn.

The loss on the house is probably $800, on which there is an insurance of $300 in favor of the Limestone Building Association, and the loss on household goods fully $200, with no insurance.

Mr. Stevens is a teamster for the Limestone Milling Company, a worthy colored citizen, and the loss falls heavily upon him.

JOHN C. PROCTOR.

THEY FALL DOWN AGAIN!

The Auditor's Agents Must Begin Over Some More!

THE C. AND O. RAILWAY STILL ON TOP!

THE LENDER has noted the several attempts of the "Tax Inquisitors" or Auditor's Agents to molest the C. and O. Railway by exorbitant and unjust methods of taxation.

Falling in other directions, the agents of the so-called Auditor trumped up a "lease" of the long-slumbering Maysville and Big Sandy Railroad—under which part of the C. and O. system is now operated—and an attempt has been made to compel the payment of back taxes on this "lease" to the amount of some $50,000—although the Railway Company is now paying taxes on all its property at a valuation equal to the cost of building the road.

A petition to this effect was filed in the County Court at its last session; to which the Attorneys for the Chesapeake and Ohio demurred.

After a petulant hearing of the pros and cons Judge Newell rendered the following judgment:

Commonwealth of Kentucky, by F. S. Watson, Auditor's Agent, etc., vs. Chesapeake and Ohio Railway Company.

The question as to the jurisdiction of the Mason County Court over the matters involved in this proceeding, raised the special demurrer herein of defendant Chesapeake and Ohio Railway Company, has been fully heard and considered.

It is now held, on the face of the information filed, that the said Chesapeake and Ohio Railway Company, as an entity, is a corporation organized under the laws of Kentucky on relation of Watson, Auditor's Agent, etc., as embraced in the original and amended statements, one to five inclusive, that there is no jurisdiction of authority in this Court to list for taxation either the certain lease cited in the information or the franchise of the said Chesapeake and Ohio Railway Company, whether as a Virginia, West Virginia, Kentucky, or consolidated corporation.

The special demurrer is sustained and the proceeding dismissed.

To all of which plaintiff objects and excepts.

It is understood that the Auditor's Agents will now apply to Judge Harbison for a mandamus to compel Judge Newell to do what they want done—words to that effect!

Apologies, the following, fresh from the legal locker, may prove an eye-opener to some of the tax phobias of FRANCHISE TAX A DOUBLE BURDEN!

The Texas Supreme Court Declares That Intangible Property of Railroad and Corporations Cannot Be Assessed.

AUSTIN, TEX., May 23.—The Supreme Court today handed down an opinion in which it holds that the franchises of railroads and corporations known as intangible property are not taxable.

The case came up from the Travis County District Court and from there was appealed to the Third Court of Civil Appeals at Austin and to the Supreme Court.

The decision of the latter Court affirms the decision of the lower Court.

This was the last case which was argued the State of Texas vs. the Austin and Northwestern Railroad Company, wherein it was sought to tax the franchise of a railroad corporation.

The Court holds that the franchise of a corporation without its real property is lifeless, and also that taxing the franchise and real property would be double taxation, not permitted under the laws of Texas.

LACES!

FOR TRIMMINGS.

For weeks trains coming to Maysville have had laces aboard for us—and you. The show is at its best right now and we are proud of it. No woman will be apt to have an unsatisfied lace want if she depends upon Hunt's, Russian, Arabian and Arabesque Allovers in black, white, cream, and in many colors. $1 to $3.50. Insistent to match many, 10c to 75c. Delicate Lace, Chiffon or Silk Appliques, black, cream and linen color, 25c to $1. People are apt to take trimmings for granted. They should not. This collection meant time, patience and skill to gather. There isn't a richer trimming store in Maysville—and that statement's made guardedly, knowing you can easily prove its truth. Our earnest hope you will.

COULD it be that the Honorable GEORGE FRANKLIN WEAVER, the Eminent Strolling Barber and Perjuror, has gone to join the Dishonorable THOMAS COURTHOUSE CAMPBELL, the Frequent Satch and Jury Fixer? Both are strangely missing from Frankfort and Georgetown.

WONDER if the people of Mason county could be induced to send a man to the Legislature who will favor laws for inducing capital and manufacturers to come into Kentucky, instead of a man whose only declaration is that he is "in favor of any law that helps the Democrats?"

THERE are no flies on DICK WOOD. To-day at Louisville he read the riot act to the office-holders who think they have a fee simple title to the Republican party in Kentucky. The trouble with some fellows who you get good luck get an office is that they imagine themselves the masters instead of the servants of the people.

AN estimate of the money lost on the turf throughout the world during each year places the amount at $250,000,000, of which $50,000,000 is lost on English courses. There is no estimate of the number of pauperized patrons, debauched lives, ruined families, suicides and broken hearts that follow in the wake of that greatest of gamblers' games—News Item.

And yet horse racing and its attendant gambling is recognized by law—and so-called good "society." While it is unlawful and wholly disreputable to bet upon a lot of gaudily painted tin horses spinning around a wooden track,—each horse being properly named and the bets properly placed,—it is eminently respectable to bet upon flesh-and-blood horses of the same names that are being brutally spurred around a real track ten feet removed from the imitation track.

For a certainty, many persons strain at a pike and swallow an entire caravan of elephants!

In the Court of Appeals, in the suit of Wiggins vs. Commonwealth, taken up from Robertson county, the judgment as to cost was affirmed and the appeal as to allowance to Osborne was dismissed.
